This document is prepared for publication/use with the EDD Hub website and app. It is written for the current MVP operating model and should be reviewed if the product, payments, jurisdictions, data processing, or delivery model changes.

1. Purpose

This procedure explains how to raise complaints, delivery disputes, billing disputes, privacy concerns and support issues with EDD Hub.

2. Contact routes

Use the correct contact route:

Issue type	Contact
---	---
General support, complaints and disputes	support@eddhub.co.uk
Privacy and data rights	privacy@eddhub.co.uk
Billing and invoice disputes	billing@eddhub.co.uk

No public phone number is currently provided.

3. Emergencies

EDD Hub support is not an emergency service.

If there is immediate danger, risk of violence, medical emergency, fire, crime in progress, or another urgent safety risk, contact the appropriate emergency services first.

After the immediate risk has been handled, report the issue to EDD Hub where relevant.

4. What to include

When contacting EDD Hub, include as much relevant information as possible:

- your name
- your account email or phone number
- whether you are a driver, takeaway or other person
- job ID or run reference if relevant
- takeaway name if relevant
- date and approximate time
- what happened
- screenshots or evidence where appropriate
- what outcome you are asking for

Do not send excessive personal data or unrelated information.

5. Delivery disputes

Delivery disputes may include:

- driver no-show
- driver late
- driver cancelled

- takeaway not ready
- wrong order or bag issue
- wrong status update
- order not delivered
- could not deliver
- unsafe location concern
- payment issue between takeaway and driver

EDD Hub may review:

- job timeline
- timestamps
- driver details
- takeaway details
- issue reports
- cancellation records
- notes
- uploaded images where relevant
- app events and logs

EDD Hub's job timeline and logs are the main operational record for disputes.

6. Billing disputes

Billing disputes should be sent to billing@eddhub.co.uk.

Include:

- invoice number
- takeaway name
- invoice week
- disputed job ID(s)
- amount disputed
- reason for dispute
- evidence where relevant

You should raise invoice disputes promptly after receiving the invoice.

EDD Hub may mark an invoice as under review, overdue, unpaid, paid or resolved depending on the admin workflow and evidence.

7. Privacy complaints and data rights

Privacy complaints and data rights requests should be sent to privacy@eddhub.co.uk.

EDD Hub may need to verify your identity before responding.

See the Privacy Notice and Data Rights and Deletion Request Policy for more detail.

8. Response times

EDD Hub aims to acknowledge complaints and support requests within 5 business days where practical.

EDD Hub aims to provide a response within 14 business days for ordinary operational complaints.

Complex disputes, privacy matters, legal matters, safety matters, billing investigations or cases requiring third-party information may take longer.

9. Possible outcomes

Depending on the issue, EDD Hub may:

- explain the timeline
- correct an account or job record where appropriate
- mark an invoice/payment issue as resolved
- issue a warning
- restrict or suspend an account
- ask for more information
- take no action if the report is unsupported or outside EDD Hub's control
- keep records for legal, accounting, fraud, safety or dispute reasons

10. Driver payment disputes

During the MVP, EDD Hub does not handle driver payouts. The takeaway pays the driver directly using its existing arrangement.

EDD Hub may record and review payment issues, but EDD Hub is not the payer of the driver payment unless EDD Hub later introduces in-app payouts.

11. Abusive complaints

EDD Hub may refuse to continue handling a complaint if the person raising it is abusive, threatening, discriminatory, repeatedly dishonest, or misuses the support process.

12. Governing law

This procedure is governed by Scots law, and disputes will be handled by the courts of Scotland unless otherwise required by law.
